Case No. _____

vs.

Judgment Debtor(s) _____

You are hereby notified that this Court has issued a writ of execution in the above case in favor of the judgment creditor in the proceeding, directing that some or all of your property be sold according to law and the proceeds of the sale be delivered to the Clerk of this Court to be used to satisfy all or part of your debt to the judgment creditor. This writ of execution was issued on the basis of the judgment that was obtained in the Hamilton County Municipal/Common Pleas Court.

The Laws of Ohio and the United States provide that certain property cannot be taken from you to pay a debt. The law exempts from execution your interest in or right to specified property as describe in Ohio Revised Code 2329.66(a). The substance of this statutory provision is attached to the notice.

“THE DEBT COLLECTOR IS ATTEMPTING TO COLLECT A DEBT AND ANY INFORMATION OBTAINED WILL BE USED FOR THAT PURPOSE”

NOTICE

By law, certain property is exempt from execution. If any of your property listed above falls into any of the following categories, you may be able to claim it as exempt and keep it.

1. Your interest, not to exceed $1,000.00 in one motor vehicle.
2. Your interest, not to exceed $200.00 in any particular item, in wearing apparel, beds, and bedding and your interest, not to exceed $300.00 in each item, in one cooking unit and one refrigerator or other food preservative unit.
3. Your interest, not to exceed $200.00 in any particular item, in household furnishing, household goods, appliance, books, animals, crops. Musical instruments, firearms and hunting and fishing equipment, which are primarily for personal, family or household use;
4. Your interest in one or more items of jewelry, not to exceed $400.00 in one item of jewelry and not to exceed $200.00 in every other item of jewelry;
5. Your interest not to exceed an aggregate of $750.00 in all implements, professional books, or tools of your profession, trade or business, including agriculture.

The Actual value of any item of your personal property is measured by the price at which it could be sold considering its present age and condition.

If you believe that some or all of your property is exempt from execution, you may request a hearing before this court by filling out the enclosed form requesting a hearing, or a substantially similar form, and delivering the request for hearing to the Office of the Clerk of this Court not later than the end of the fifth business day after you receive this notice. In the space provided on the form, you may state your reason for claiming that some of your property is exempt from execution, but you are not required to do so. If you do not state reasons on the form, the Court will permit you to state your reasons at the hearing. If you do state reasons on the form, you may also state other reasons at the hearing.

If you request a hearing by delivering your request for hearing no later than the end of the fifth business day after you receive this notice, the hearing will be conducted no later than twelve days after the Court receives your request, unless you request an earlier hearing due to an emergency, in which case the Court will schedule the hearing as soon as practicable. At the hearing the court will consider the amount of your property that is exempt from execution and the amount that can be used to satisfy all or part of the judgment you owe to the judgment creditor. The Court will not hear or consider any objections to the judgment itself at the hearing.

If you do not request a hearing by delivering your request prior to the end of the fifth business day after you receive this notice, you give up your right to a hearing and to assert reasons why some or all of your property should not be used for payment of your debt to the judgment creditor.

If you have any questions concerning this matter, you may contact the Office of the Clerk of this Court. If you want legal representation, you should contact your lawyer immediately, if you need the name of a lawyer, contact the local bar association or your legal services office.
