The laws of Ohio and the United States provide that certain benefit payments cannot be taken from you to pay a debt. Typically, benefits that can't be attached or executed upon by a creditor are: 1. Workers' compensation; 2. Unemployment compensation; 3. Cash assistance payments under Ohio works first program; 4. Benefits and services under the prevention, retention, and contingency program; 5. Disability assistance administered by Ohio dept. of job and family services; 6. Social security; 7. Supplemental social security (S.S.I.); 8. Veteran's Benefits; 9. Black lung benefits; 10. Certain pensions. There may be other benefits not included in the above list that apply in your case.

If you dispute the creditor's right to garnish your property and believe that the creditor should not be given your money, property, or credits other than personal earnings now in possession of the garnishee because they are exempt, or if you feel that this order is improper for any reason, you may request a hearing before this court disputing the claim in the Request for Hearing section on this form, or in a substantially similar form, and delivering the Request for Hearing to this court at the above address at the Clerk of Courts Office, no later than the end of the 5th Business day after you receive this notice. You may state your reason for disputing the creditor's right to garnish your property in the space provided on the form; however, you are not required to do so. If you do not state your reasons for disputing the creditor's right, the court will not hold it against you and you can state your reasons at the hearing. NO OBJECTIONS TO THE JUDGMENT ITSELF WILL BE HEARD OR CONSIDERED AT THE HEARING. If you request a hearing, the hearing will be limited to a consideration of the amount of money, property, or credits other than personal earnings in the possession or control of the garnishee, if any, that can be used to satisfy all or part of the judgment you owe to the creditor. You can request a hearing by delivering our Request for Hearing on the enclosed postcard, or on the Request for Hearing section of this form, no later than the end of the 5th Business Day after you receive this notice. The date set for the hearing will depend on when the clerk receives your request. The clerk will notify you of the hearing.
